

On the hunt for a fun, kid-friendly activity? See if you can find all nine of the small bronze mice hidden along the five blocks of Main Street, between the Hyatt Regency and the Westin Poinsett hotels.

Conceived as a senior project by Jimmy Ryan, a student at Greenville's Christ Church Episcopal School, and crafted by local artist Zan Wells, the sculptures draw inspiration from Margaret Wise Brown's book Goodnight Moon. See if you can find them all!

Here are some hints (you can find more clues and a cheat sheet at www.miceonmain.com):

1. Begin your search at the Hyatt and NOMA Square. You'll find Marvin and his book there.
2. Maggie is across the street keeping cars off the sidewalk – a tricky feat!
3. Marvin, Jr. is too young to drink morning brew; still he tries to sneak in before he hears "shoo!"
4. Marcley's a dancer. Watch his feet. He's near the plaza at One Main Street.
5. Millie is the hardest to see; from her high-tech roost, she watches crossers with glee.
6. Mitch gets ready to run into a "money garden" to have some fun.
7. Melissa is healthy and strong; with vitamins and veggies, she can't go wrong.
8. Mifflin is on the corner by a bank. (It's the oldest one downtown, to be frank.)
9. At an Italian restaurant, near a rain spout, Uncle Miles is just hanging out.
